DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY, POLITICAL SCIENCE AND SOCIOLOGY

ACCEPT THE CHALLENGE™

Why choose sociology at Geneva?

Geneva introduces students to the dynamic and complex world of people, equipping them to understand social theory particularly as it connects to the everyday social life of communities. Each portion of the program is connected to a real world experience and special attention is given to the unique contribution Christians can make as servants of Christ.

- The opportunity to be part of the City House living/learning community, working in neighborhood building and community service
- Write for Culture.ish, an independent, grant-funded publication and website that engages culture
- Work side-by-side with Beaver County inmates who are taking a college course

What degree options are available at Geneva?

B.A. in SOCIOLOGY, with concentrations in:

- COMMUNITY RECONCILIATION AND RENEWAL
- AMERICAN CULTURE STUDIES
- CRIMINAL JUSTICE

What can I do with a sociology degree from Geneva?

- Criminal Justice
- Teach
- Counseling

What are Geneva sociology graduates doing now?

- Drug rehabilitation counselor
- Alternative education teacher
- Community economic development
- Pursuing graduate degrees at

What are some classes I might take at Geneva?

- Social Change
- Seeking Reconciliation: Gender, Class and Race
- Criminology

Now dig deeper…

…by visiting www.geneva.edu to find full descriptions of majors and concentrations, read current student stories, meet the faculty, schedule your campus visit and apply for admission.

Or contact the Admissions Office at 800.847.8255 or admissions@geneva.edu.

"The Social Justice class was fascinating because we had all types of authorities in the criminal justice field come in and share stories. I knew this is what I wanted to do for the rest of my life."

Marcus Costanza, sociology student