

"Geneva is a college, not a church; our purpose is complementary rather than identical to that of the church. But Geneva is a community of believers who live and work together, and are therefore reflective of the body of Christ."
*President Kenneth A. Smith, Inaugural Address
October, 2004*

As members of the body of Christ, we pursue partnership with churches. We invite pastors and churches to join us for the weekly chapel program and other events on campus. For more information, visit www.geneva.edu/page/pastors\_churches.

Everyone has a God-given purpose to fulfill, so how do you encourage members of your church family to find theirs? At Geneva College, education is more than career training. It's a way for students to find their calling and prepare for a lifetime of service and leadership.
