

The Geneva Cabinet

SPRING 2012 MEDIA GUIDE

About

The Geneva Cabinet

The student newspaper of Geneva College, the Geneva Cabinet is a weekly newspaper distributed to the student body, faculty, staff, and visitors free of charge every Friday during the school year. The paper is distributed through paper bins in prominent locations, mailbox stuffings of certain editions, and directly to passersby in high traffic locations. Past editions may be viewed on Geneva College's website. The paper is run by a student editorial staff led by an upperclassman and features campus events, regional, national, and international news, personality interviews, Geneva and Pittsburgh sports, Sudoku and mind games, and popular comics. The Geneva Cabinet is printed in tabloid size with five columns, each 1.85" wide.

Event Advertising

The only advertising opportunity on our front page, this ad appears next to major campus event reminders in an eye catching area of the front page. The event ad will feature a two to four word title of your event, the location, date, and time.

Events must occur the weekend of publication and should be of general interest, free or paid. If you pair this ad with an inside ad, we will include text indicating the presence of more information inside the paper.

How to advertise in

The Geneva Cabinet

To place an ad, email us at cabinet.editor@geneva.edu. Space reservations should be made as early as possible to ensure space availability. Ad artwork must be received by the deadline posted for the publication date.

We accept JPG and PNG images as well as PDFs. Image files should be designed to take up the allotted space. Images that don't fit the allotted space will not be stretched. For best results, image resolution should be 300 dots-per-inch or higher. The Geneva Cabinet shall not be responsible for ads that don't print or which don't print properly that are not to specification. We will attempt to work with you to ensure best results.

The Geneva Cabinet reserves the right to refuse any advertisement at the discretion of the editorial staff.
