

DEPARTMENT OF BIBLE, CHRISTIAN MINISTRIES, AND PHILOSOPHY

ACCEPT THE CHALLENGE™

Why choose biblical or philosophical studies at Geneva?

The main feature of our department is our redemptive-historical perspective, in which both the Old Testament and the New Testament are seen as the progressive unfolding of God's redemptive plan, culminating in the person and work of Jesus Christ. Students will be challenged to engage the course material at a high level, to apply this knowledge to practical ministry and to develop the various spiritual disciplines that—through the Holy Spirit—empower them for ministry.

- Study abroad at Jerusalem University College, including participation in JUC's archeology program
- Study at the Covenanter Theological Institute in Scotland
- Attend the annual Evangelical Theological Society conference with faculty
- Bitar Lecture Series—listen to world renowned philosophers brought to campus

"The philosophy program doesn't put one through a rigid, sterile, algorithmic four-year schedule. Geneva's curriculum is fluid. It flows from the classroom into conversations and essays and presentations." Nate Wiley, philosophy
