

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

ACCEPT THE CHALLENGE™

Why choose music studies at Geneva?

Students gain a critical understanding of the musical field together with a technical one, due to the depth and breadth of their studies. The skills developed are an appreciation of the broader arts and sciences; an understanding of the logic and context of music; competence in the individual and group performance of music within a variety of instruments; development of marketable professional skill; and the ability to articulate and demonstrate a comprehensive philosophy of music in performances and in all of life's work.

What degree options are available at Geneva?

B.A. in MUSIC (GENERAL)
B.A. in MUSIC BUSINESS
B.S. in MUSIC EDUCATION (K-12 certification)
B.A. in MUSIC PERFORMANCE

What can I do with a music degree?

- Recording artist
- Solo performance
- Teaching
- Church ministry
- Music wholesaling and retailing
- Personal and concert management
- Booking agent
- Director of tour promotions

What are Geneva music graduates doing now?

Graduates from the music department find employment across a broad spectrum of opportunities, from teaching in public schools to singing in the Metropolitan Opera. The music business major prepares students to work in music wholesaling and retailing, or personal and concert management.

What internships are available through Geneva?

- The Contemporary Music Center in Nashville, Tennessee.

What are some classes I might take at Geneva?

- Aural Skills
- World and Popular Music
- Survey of the Music Industry

Academic Organizations

- The Genevans
- Eight Bells
- Grace Notes
- Marching Band
- Jazz Band
- Symphonic Concert Band

Now dig deeper...

...by visiting www.geneva.edu to find full descriptions of majors and concentrations, read current student stories, meet the faculty, schedule your campus visit and apply for admission.

“Care and concern from faculty and peers is pivotal to see students through the highs and lows of college life and the musical demands of practicing and performances.”

Tesni (Searles) Freed, music graduate