

Applying to Graduate School/ What to do and when

Step 1

- Get addresses of Graduate Admission programs
- Contact school(s) of interest and programs of interest
- Collect catalogs, brochures, applications entrance exam information

Step 2

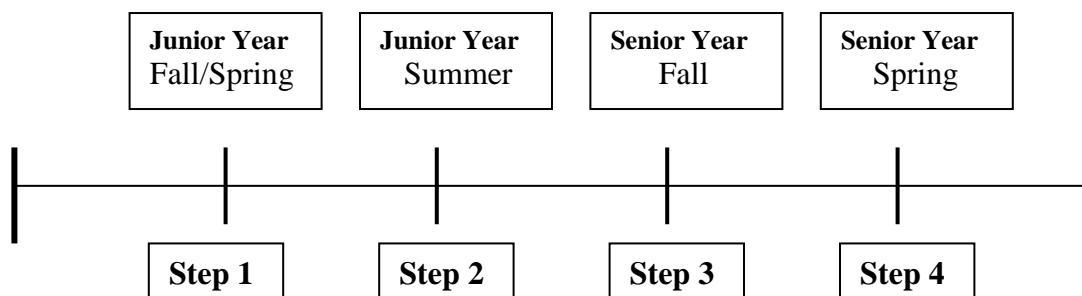

- Visit schools, formally or informally
- Arrange to meet with program faculty and students
- Investigate housing possibilities
- Research financial aid, assistantships, fellowships
- Register and take graduate examination(s)

Step 3

- Gather information and directions for applications
- Complete applications with enclosed application fees
- Submit all required information by deadline(s)

Step 4

- Reply to interview offers, set up interview(s)
- Interview, wait for response
- Accept/Reject

Visit Geneva College Career Development for more information