3&3 Program
Geneva College and Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Pittsburgh

OVERVIEW
The 3&3 Program is offered through a partnership between Geneva College and the Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary (RPTS) in Pittsburgh, PA. This program allows students interested in pursuing seminary after college to save a year of classes and tuition by completing both a bachelor’s degree from Geneva College and a Master of Divinity (M.Div.) from RPTS in just six years.

HOW IT WORKS
Students desiring to complete the 3&3 Program should be enrolled in a biblical studies or pre-seminary major as early as possible in order to receive proper guidance in choosing courses and may apply to RPTS as early as their sophomore year. Upon acceptance and completion of 90 credits of coursework at Geneva, students may begin taking classes at RPTS. Once the 3&3 Program has been completed, students will receive a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) from Geneva and a Master of Divinity (M.Div.) from RPTS. RPTS restricts the number of M.Div. students without undergraduate degrees in hand, so enrollment in the 3&3 Program is limited. Students with exemplary grades and strong recommendations from Geneva will be given priority consideration by RPTS.

CONCENTRATIONS
• Missions
• Pastoral Ministry
• Biblical Language
• Biblical Counseling – National Association of Nouthetic Counselors (NANC) certified

*electives taken at Geneva College will serve as a concentration at RPTS.

ABOUT THE GENEVA COLLEGE BIBLE DEPARTMENT
The Department of Bible, Christian Ministries and Philosophy teaches from a redemptive-historical perspective, in which both the Old Testament and the New Testament are seen as the progressive unfolding of God’s redemptive plan, culminating in the person and work of Jesus Christ. Bible department faculty members highlight three areas of growth and development for students: scholarship, spiritual formation and practical ministry.

ABOUT THE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF PITTSBURGH (RPTS)
Founded in 1810, the Reformed Presbyterian Theological Seminary (RPTS) is the graduate theological school of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in North America and is accredited by the Association of Theological Schools (ATS). The mission of the RPTS is “to educate students who love the Lord Jesus Christ and His Word, equipping pastors for the ministry of the gospel and preparing others in the church for effective service in His kingdom, all within the framework of the historic Reformed faith. RPTS strives to faithfully equip and train pastors for spreading the word of Jesus Christ under the Reformed denomination.” Training at RPTS emphasizes scholarship in Biblical studies, systematic theology, and church history; the cultivation of personal godliness and interpersonal skills; and the development of spiritual gifts — all with a vision for discipling the nations of the world.

HOW TO APPLY
Students who wish to take part in the 3&3 Program may contact Dean Smith, chair of the Department of Bible, Christian Ministries and Philosophy at drsmith@geneva.edu.

*electives taken at Geneva College will serve as a concentration at RPTS.