Student Information
Effective: Academic Year 2008-2009

Respecting the Biblical role of parents in the lives of their dependent children (as defined by Federal Income Tax standards), Geneva College may share upon request or upon the discretion of the College, educational record information with the parents with whom students make their permanent residence.

As a student you are being asked to sign your acknowledgement of this policy. If you have extenuating circumstances that would preclude our sharing of such information with a designated individual, please register a letter of concern with the Dean of Students. A review committee will notify you if your request will be honored.

Information that may typically be shared includes but is not limited to:

- Campus contact information (room assignment, email address, phone number)
- Class attendance / progress record
- Financial awards / charges
- Violations of campus community behavioral standards
- Filing of civil or criminal charges
