

Business Administration

Geneva's Business Administration program produces some of the highest-performing students in the nation, scoring in the 80th percentile nationwide in Education Testing Service Major Field Tests. Students leave this program prepared to start and manage businesses with integrity. Students in this program also have the option to select our accelerated 3+1 Scholars Program and receive their undergraduate degree in three years, and MBA in one year. Students learn a wide variety of skills in management, business, ethics, and analytics that set them up for success in almost any industry. Students can also customize their education and focus on an area of interest.
