Introducing Geneva College Eastern Campus

Geneva College Eastern Campus is a highly innovative program that offers students in the New Jersey area a top-rated, Christian higher education at costs that rival community colleges and public universities. Geneva's Eastern Campus education model provides students with the flexibility and affordability they need to pursue a smart start to their education and career.

Geneva College Eastern Campus students will be able to explore their calling, close to home, in our academically recognized, accredited programs. Students can explore their education pathway through the completion of an associate degree as a transition to Geneva's main campus or another recognized institution.

The satellite campus of Geneva College is conveniently located at Eastern Christian School's North Haledon campus – making it New Jersey's first and only Council for Christian Colleges and Universities (CCCU) institution. The CCCU is a national organization of comprehensive institutions of higher learning with Christian missions to advance faith and intellect for the public good.

An Affordable Option

Costs

Tuition and fees are competitive with public universities and even community colleges in northern New Jersey. They've been set to offer New Jersey residents an affordable Christian higher education that is close to home. Low costs help students pay for school without incurring significant higher education debt.

A full-time semester of four classes looks like this:

Tuition for 12 credits:	$4,836
Pioneer Grant:	- $500
TOTAL ESTIMATED COST:	$4,336

(Specific lab/course fees not included.)

Apply for additional aid by filing a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and entering the Geneva School Code (00326700).

Pioneer Grant

The Pioneer Grant provides $1,000 for the first year ($500 a semester) for students who enroll in at least 12 credits each semester

The Geneva Advantage

Geneva College Eastern Campus students join an established Christian community of Geneva College students, alumni, faculty, and staff. Students admitted into this innovative NJ program are considered Geneva students and have a Geneva faculty advisor on our home campus. They are also eligible to participate in Geneva enrichment programs including mission trips, study abroad, May Term and student services, such as:

- Student Success Center
- Center for Calling and Career
- McCartney Library
- Crossroads: Geneva's Center for Enriched Learning
- Center for Student Engagement

And, as a Geneva student, you don't need to transfer into the main campus to complete your bachelor's degree. You are already a student, so the process is seamless.
