

Statesmanship and Religious Freedom Seminar

PHILADELPHIA: MAY 24-26, 2022

This Statesmanship and Religious Freedom (SaRF) Seminar is cosponsored by the

FAITH AND LIBERTY DISCOVERY CENTER

and

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM INSTITUTE

DESCRIPTION

You are invited to join other highly motivated college students to explore the critical role religious freedom plays in a free and flourishing society and the role key historical figures have played in advancing this fundamental human right. Modeled on the highly successful Statesmanship and Religious Freedom (SaRF) Seminar held each year in Washington DC, SaRF in Philly will convene on May 24-26, 2022. The program includes interactive sessions with religious freedom scholars and advocates, multi-sensory and immersive experiences through the exhibits at the Faith and Liberty Discovery Center, visits to historical sites around Independence Mall, and meetings with public officials working to advance religious freedom in the US and abroad.

HIGHLIGHTS

-  Interact with religious freedom advocates, US history scholars, and public officials
-  Explore and evaluate the ideas that were at the heart of the American Founding
-  Visit the sites where the American experiment was born including historic Christ Church and Independence Hall
-  Get a behind the scenes look at the Faith and Liberty Discovery Center
