

Student Learning Outcome	Description
Worldview	Students can articulate the nature, strengths and weaknesses, and uses of worldviews, can use worldview analysis critically, articulate the critical elements of an evangelical, reformed Christian worldview
Bible Knowledge and Christian Life	Students can articulate the essential Biblical truths of the Christian faith, have evaluated their own faith with respect to those truths, have considered the claims of Christ on their own life, and articulate their calling to participate biblically in relationships, family, church and vocation.
Communication	Students communicate clearly, responsibly and with integrity in written and oral forms, and evaluate the written, oral and artistic communications of others based on the same criteria.
Liberal Arts and Critical Thinking	Students demonstrate value in developing the lifelong learning skills necessary to critically respond to world-shaping intellectual and artistic works, and complement those skills with lifelong habits that nurture physical, mental and emotional well-being.
Cultural Engagement	Grounded in Biblical principles of humility, mercy, and justice, students will grow in understanding the commonality and diversity of humans created in the image of God, value contributions of cultures different from their own, offer analysis of both historic and current causes and effects of contemporary cultural issues, and consider active participation in civic life.
Professionalism	Students acknowledge that all vocations are areas for honoring God and demonstrate competency in the essential skills, literacies, data, theory, and methods of their major field to a professionally recognized standard for a graduate and sufficiently for their vocational calling.
